Southbourne 63 Fishbourne 42

Southbourne met Fishbourne at home on a mild Wednesday evening for a friendly Bowls match consisting of three mixed triples. A very enjoyable time was had by all the bowlers and this year though Fishbourne struggle to acclimatise themselves to Southbourne's artificial green they nevertheless won on the rink skipped by Fishbourne skip Peter Winter. The evening ended with supper provided by the Southbourne team.

Ted Badger, Eileen Keane, Jim Jennings (s)

Won 27:12

Irene Jennings, Len Mates, Margaret Odell (s)

Won 23:7

John Staker, Joan Frost, Peter Garrard (s)

Lost 23:13

Southbourne 74 Pulborough 50

For their next friendly of the week Southbourne were at home to Pulborough to play 4 mixed triples. On two of the triples skipped by Peter Garrard and Margaret Odell the results were never in doubt with relatively easy wins for Southbourne, on the other two triples the results were closer and for the triple skipped by David Young the shots were very close with eventually Pulborough just managing to hold on to take the game. After the match a welcome tea, out of the windy and showery weather, was provided by the Southbourne team.
